

Inauguration Ticket Request Form

Thank you for your interest in attending the Inauguration of President-elect Barack Obama on January 20th, 2009. My office will do our best to assist you in obtaining tickets for this exciting, historic event. At this time, congressional offices do not know the exact quantity of tickets we will receive or the exact date we will receive them. Please send my office the following information so we can keep track of requests and keep you informed as we get more information.

At the present time, there are few things to keep in mind: Tickets will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis (determined by the date of your request). Also, the number of tickets that congressional offices have received in the past has varied greatly so, depending on the quantity, the number of tickets per group may be limited.

Congressional offices do not have access to tickets for the Morning Worship Service, Procession to the Capitol, Inaugural Luncheon, Inaugural Parade or Inaugural Balls. For more information about these and other Inaugural events in our Nation's Capital, please visit the 56th Inaugural website here.

In addition, my office would be happy to help arrange tours for you and your family while you are visiting Washington. More information can be found on my website HERE.

Thank you again for your interest. I hope to see you in Washington as we inaugurate Barack Obama our nation's 44th President.

Sincerely,

Ellen O. Tauscher
