

Federal Grants

In this section, I have assembled information to support my constituents' search for grant opportunities as well as the application process.

Resources from my 2nd Annual Congressional Grants Conference

Click above to access information, including speaker presentations and handouts

Resources from my 1st Congressional Grants Conference (2005)

To keep constituents updated about future federal grant opportunities, I am now providing an email grants newsletter. Sign up below to receive it.

Email Address*

First Name

Last Name

Address

City

ZipCode

To read the most recent version of on Grants e-newsletter click here .

To access more information on funding opportunities and grants, click on one of the following links.

Information on Federal Funding

The federal government maintains a number of comprehensive websites that provide popular information on government funding. Visit this page to learn more about these programs.

Private Funding Resources

Access this page to learn more about private funding sources that serve the 10th Congressional District of California.

Additional Resources To Support Your Non-Profit Organization

Here I have put together a variety of websites that provide additional resources for grant seekers, including information on grant writing and local organizations that provide technical support for non-profit organizations located in this congressional district.

Financial Aid for Students

Each year students planning for college and graduate school contact my office requesting information about available financial aid, scholarships, federal loans, and more. In this section I provide many resources to assist students with the process of locating and applying for financial aid. Resources include information on government programs, private opportunities, and search tools that you can access over the Internet.

Subvenciones y Ayuda Federal de Ámbito Nacional

He usado esta pagina para montar una pagina de Internet en español cual provee información sobre los mismos temas alistados arriba, incluyendo becas del gobierno, beneficios, asistencia de empresas pequeñas, y asistencia estudiantil económica.

